Details:
Please note that in addition to the people described in the case with a reference number bdnpor65, I suspect that and the following persons may have written the blasphemy against my mother-in-law Anna and my husband Svetle:

1) A man from Neykovo (a village in Kotel municipality in the country of Bulgaria) who claimed to have the same first name as my father Mitko Nikolov Mihov, i.e. Mitko. The same man claimed to have children called Ivo, Miki and Desislava. I.e. the man claimed to have 2 sons and a daughter who is also my namesake. I met that man when I was 5 years old. Mom let me stay one night when I was 5 years old at the house of the man who claimed to carry the name of my own father, i.e. Mitko, and when mom took me in the morning, she noticed that I was naked. I undressed on my own because the house was very hot. Yet, my mother Nadia Hristova Mihova did not want me to go there anymore because apparently the place was kept extremely hot and it was not good for small children or for anyone at all. In other words, my mother Nadia did not trust what that man that claimed to be Mitko (carrying the same name as her husband) was doing there. The man also claimed to be close cousin of my father Mitko and occupied a house adjacent to the house of my grandparents Kolio and Mika in Neykovo (a village in Kotel municipality in the country of Bulgaria).

2) The woman who claimed to be Kina and described in case with a reference number "giayczrz". The woman who claimed to be Kina appeared with a small child (a girl) she was calling Victoria in the apartment my parents rented on "Todor Ikonomov" number 2 in the city of Sliven in the country of Bulgaria when I was 2-3 years old. Mom found me once naked when the child Victoria was left to stay in my room and the room of my sister Maria. I was naked (without my pants on) because I had to learn potty time and my pants were dirty; I removed them and waited for mom to come and replace them. I do not think that it was correct for the woman Kina to leave the child Victoria with us because it is not proper when children learn to take care of themselves to be surrounded by other children that are not part of the family. My mother Nadia never again invited the woman Kina in our house because she saw that Kina is not a good parent and does abandon her child (or a child she leads around) when visiting the houses of other people and it was not clear in the first place what she is doing there when my parents were taking care of their children that were almost babies. My sister is barely 1 year and 4 months older than me and was taking care of me actually when I was 2-3 years old but the presence of Victoria distracted my sister and she couldn't attend to me, even to herself, while the woman claiming to be Kina was distracting my mother Nadia Hristova Mihova and father Mitko Nikolov Mihov.
