Case details

Country where the incident allegedly occured/is occuring/might occur: Bulgaria

District: the city of Sliven

Please provide a short chronological summary of the incident: what happened; when (date/time); who was involved?
This summer met a woman calling herself Kina and claiming to have a daughter Victoria in a local church in the city of Sliven in the country of Bulgaria. The church name is "Sveta Bogoroditsa" and it is located on Tsar Osvoboditel Blvd. 1 in the city of Sliven.
The woman first pretended not to recognize me but to recognize my own mother Nadia, calling me repeatedly with her name.
She claimed that she works there for approximately 350 euro a month. Then she claimed that there is no work in the church because I went to the church to look for work.
I met for the first time the woman that call herself Kina when I was about 2-3 years old when she brought another child she called Viki (with a big name Viktoria) to my mom's and dad's apartment on 'Todor Ikonomov' street 2, in the city of Sliven in the country of Bulgaria. The child Vitkoria (as Kina calls her) is of female gender and was also 2-3 years old when the woman calling herself Kina brought her home and presented her as her own daughter to my own parents.
Since then I have met the woman calling herself Kina few times while she pretended to be a friend of my parents.
The woman calling herself Kina even insinuated to my mother that she has been fornicated with my father Mitko when I was 7-8 years old.
The woman claimed one that she has been divorced from her real husband, she called in front of my parents Misho, when her daughter Victoria (as she claims) has been 6 years old. She claimed this in front of me this summer when I went to the local church "Sveta Bogoroditsa" on Tsar Osvoboditel Blvd. 1 in the city of Sliven where I met her accidentally because I did not expect to meet her without the presence of a priest or other staff in the church. My mother - Nadia Hristova Mihova - mentioned approximately a year ago before that the woman that claims that her name is Kina has started to work there. The woman that claims to be called Kina has met my mother on the street claiming that.
It is unlawful to work in a church if you claim that you are a divorcee, since divorce is a blasphemy, not to mention to sit in a temple of God and blasphemy, i.e. talk about divorce.
The woman who claims to be Kina has blue eyes, supposedly naturally blond hair and short male haircut. She occasionally wear transparent glasses and is a little bit shorter than me or almost my height of 172cm. She is normal to medium obese weight.
